Individual Accountability: Exploring Organisms

Today you have learned that when doing biology, some questions are more useful than others. Look at the picture below and decide which of the two questions might provide information that is more informative. Write 2-3 sentences about why the question you have chosen is useful and why the other question is not as useful.

Is the organism aquatic? or Does the organism have scales?